

Settlers in the Isle of Axholme

Some while ago, having researched my 'Settler' ancestors for many years, I decided to buy the early wills of those individuals bearing names which are known to be connected with this community. The purpose of this was to uncover the names of beneficiaries and others, connected to my family, about whom I may have known nothing. It is mainly because I found this to be useful that I decided to ask The Isle of Axholme FHS if they could include these will details on their website and this they kindly agreed to do.

I have visited Doncaster, Lincoln and The Borthwick (York) Archive Offices, sometimes to transcribe a will, other times to just search and note down details in order to buy later. I have also bought (online from PRO Kew) wills from the Commonwealth period-----however, some, although included in indices for this period, I have been unable to locate.

Finally, I have searched from 1630 to 1700 and have included what details I have obtained for this period. This is not a complete list of probate and if any other researcher wishes to add to it I would be happy for them to do so.

Jo McCann.

Notes on Columns

Type:

----whether will, inventory or administration.

Surname:

These often differ in spelling but are usually recognisable as belonging to same family e.g. Harnew and Hernew. Some earlier spellings of same name show Harnue and Hernue. The name/will that stands out in this column is that of Layroy in Thorney. In his will James Layroy states that his 'Alis' is King. (Le roi= the king!) He leaves money to 'Easter King, daughter of David King, lately deceased.' It would appear that this family had begun to anglicize their name.

First Name:

Usually given in English but sometimes appears still in French.

Of/Place:

This can be fairly specific, such as of 'Belton/Goodcop----there is still a farm with that name close to Sandtoft,---- whereas of 'Hatfield' or 'Hatfield Leville' only indicates an area.

Dated:

Date given is usually first date on will but if none is written at beginning I have used date that will is signed.

Occupation:

Most occupations are given as 'husbandman' or 'yeoman'; only two: James Amory (1648) and David Le Conte (the elder) who give their occupations as 'charpentier' (carpenter) and 'mercier', respectively, are different.

Interred:

Unfortunately, not all say where they wish to be buried.

Beneficiary/Other:

These two columns contain names of all, in whatever capacity they are mentioned on will.

Relationship:

To be used in conjunction with previous two columns. I have tried to be as accurate as possible and described relationship to deceased in words used on will.

Reference/Comment:

Again, I have tried to be as accurate as I can be and these last two columns give the references I used to obtain wills. I bought wills in five places: Doncaster, York (The Borthwick), Lincoln, Cambridge and also on-line from PRO Kew. Details of current addresses for each of above Archive Offices can be found on-line on their respective web-sites. Occasionally, when I have not been able to fit it in elsewhere, an extra piece of information has been included in last column headed 'Comment'.
